

23 November 2017

Media Release - Award For Johnny Baker

JCCV Pays Tribute to A Visionary

The community has paid a heartfelt tribute to the late Johnny Baker at the Jewish Community Council of Victoria (JCCV)'s annual meeting.

At Monday's meeting, the JCCV bestowed its General Sir John Monash Award for outstanding communal leadership on Baker, who died last month, aged 62.

Announcing the award to an audience including his brother Mark, other family members and a legion of Jewish leaders who had worked with him.

JCCV president Jennifer Huppert said the roof body 'had approached Johnny about six months ago' with news of his award.

View Henry Greener's Video of AGM