

Guidelines

1. Genuine commitment to returning knowledge and experiences gained via the scholarship to the Victorian Jewish Community in a professional position.
2. A clear and well-expressed submission
3. A succinctly defined aim for the scholarship
4. Submission on or before the closing date
5. Country and and/or institution of course
6. Is this an existing or new initiative in the Victorian Jewish Community?
7. How does this initiative add to the professionalism of the Victorian Jewish Community?
8. How will this initiative or skill be maintained on an ongoing basis?
 - What hurdles, if any, do you envisage?
9. Which group or demographic will benefit?
10. Would you describe yourself as an 'established' or a 'potential' professional in the Jewish community and why?
11. What are your plans for the future?
 - How will the scholarship help in achieving this?
 - How long is the scholarship wanted for?
 - How will this scholarship impact on your life?
12. Costs
 - What are the costs involved? How will they be covered?
 - Will the course be pursued without the Lippmann scholarship?
 - Is your place of work (paid or voluntary), contributing fees to your proposed program?
Why or why not?
13. The successful applicant will be expected to present a written report to the Trustees within the year.
